THE AMENDMENT SUFFERS DEFEAT

By a Small Majority Not Yet Determined.

The statewide prohibition amendment has probably been defeated, though at this writing but few of the counties have made complete reports. The most reliable information the News could obtain came from Mr. C. L. Collins, state superintendent of the Florida Anti-Saloon League, at noon on Thursday. A private telegram to the News from Mr. Collins, dated at 11:20 yesterday forenoon said:

"About 32,000 votes have been reported so far and these on the face of the unofficial returns show that the amendment is defeated by 1,700. Very few of the counties have made complete reports. Wet victory possible. If so the negro vote is absolutely responsible. All are proud of the magnificent showing made by south Florida."

Hillsborough county, with the city of Tampa, the most populous county in the state, gave a majority of 202 for the amendment. Marion, another one of the wet counties of the state, also gave a majority vote for the amendment. Polk county gave a majority of 600 for the amendment.

At the headquarters of the liquor organization in Jacksonville the claim is made that the amendment is defeated by about 3,200. The majority against the amendment in Duval county, where more than 4,000 negroes were illegally qualified, is 3,361.

There is no dispute over the fact that the fraudulently qualified, bum negroes of Jacksonville, were the determining force in the contest.

They and the organized liquor crowd of Jacksonville have won, and as one of them said to the News—"the end justified the means."

CURIOUS BLUNDERS.

The Anachronisms That Crowded a Once Famous Poem.

The medieval romances are full of blunders, making contemporaries of men who were separated sometimes by hundreds, sometimes by thousands, of years, but as historical criticism had not then a being and the general information of the age was not superior in any particular to that of the novelist their plans do not amount to much from a literary point of view. Such an instance is the case of Ariosto, who might be supposed to know something at least of the truth of his story, but whose once famous poem, "Orlando Furioso," is a tissue of historical absurdities from beginning to end.

In this poem Charlemagne and his peers are joined by Edward I. of England, Richard, earl of Warwick; Clarence and the Dukes of York and Gloucester; cannon are employed hundreds of years before the time of Monk Schwartz, and the Moors are represented as established in Spain in spite of the historic fact that 300 years elapsed after the death of Charlemagne before they crossed from Africa. In one place Prester John, who lived 400 years after Charlemagne, and Constantine the Great, who died five centuries before him, are introduced and hold familiar converse with the great Charles, while in another Saladin and Edward the Confessor are joined by the Black Prince.

Cured Splint

"I have used Sloan's Liniment on a fine mare for splint and cured her. This makes the third horse I've cured. Have recommended it to my neighbors for thrush and they say it is fine. I find it the best Liniment I ever used. I keep on hand your Sure Colic Cure for myself and neighbors, and I can certainly recommend it for Colic."—S. E. SMITH, McDonough, Ga.

Cured Thrush.

MR. R. W. PARRISH, of Bristol, Ind., R. No. 2, writes—"I have used lots of your Liniment for horses and myself. It is the best Liniment in the world. I cured one of my horses of thrush. Her feet were rotten; the frogs came out; she laid down most of the time. I thought she would die, but I used the Liniment as directed and she never lies down in the daytime now."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

should be in every stable and applied at the first sign of lameness. You don't need to rub, it penetrates.

Will kill a spavin, curb or splint, reduce wind puffs and swollen joints, and is a sure and speedy remedy for fistula, sweeney, founder and thrush.

STATE BOARD OF MED. EXAMINERS

Have A Busy Session in Palatka.

The semi-annual session of the State Board of Medical Examiners is being held in Palatka this week, the sessions being in the circuit court room.

A peep into the big room on Wednesday afternoon was a revelation.

Seated at small tables scattered through the big room were seventy-eight physicians, most of them young doctors, several others in middle life and a few gray beards. They were writing out answers to a list of questions in the class on anatomy, the whole presided over by Dr. George B. Glover of Monticello, one of the first physicians in the state both as regards his professional standing and his citizenship in one of the Florida counties where birth and breeding count for much.

The doctors were bending over their problems very much as does a class in college, and as they completed their work their papers were folded up and handed to the examiner, each being marked by number, rather than the applicant's name. These papers the examiner takes to his home and goes over. Other members of the board examined the classes in other departments of medical science.

Many of the younger men are just out of college; others come from distant states to engage in practice in Florida. The law requires that all physicians practicing in the state must have the "O. K." of the Florida Board of Medical Examiners, who are appointed by the Governor.

The present board is composed of some of the most noted physicians in Florida. They are: Dr. J. H. Pierpont, Pensacola, president; Dr. J. D. Fennell, Jacksonville, secretary, and Doctors W. S. Gramling, Miami; Geo. B. Glover, Monticello; E. W. Warren, Palatka; S. Stringer, Tampa; A. L. Izlar, Ocala.

The board together with the physicians here for examination constitute quite a notable gathering as to dignified bearing and personal appearance. In intelligence it will compare with any gathering of professional men held in the state in recent years.

The doctors are being entertained at the Arlington, the Saratoga and the Kupperbusch hotels. The work of the examinations closed yesterday afternoon.

WILLING TO LEND.

Only Her Husband, the Mean Thing, Had Pinched Her Wad!

Men have something to learn from women in the art of warding off "touchers" for coin. Women respond to such requests once in about every thousand cases, but they are scientific in their refusal. A Cleveland woman with a reputation as a borrower turned up at the home of one of her friends the other morning with a much done over story about a persistent and threatening dressmaker and the usual request for the loan—"pay it back to-morrow, certainly—of $5."

"Why, my dear, certainly," was the pleasant response to her carefully rehearsed little yarn, "you poor thing, you! Just wait till I run upstairs and get my purse."

She ran upstairs. The male head of the house happened to be in the room where she kept her purse. He saw her dig the purse out of a chiffonier drawer and deliberately remove a wad of bills from it, leaving about 37 cents in silver and copper in the change receptacle. The man was mean enough to lean over the stair railing when his wife went downstairs to the parlor with her flattened pocketbook in her hand.

"Oh, I'm so sorry, dearie," he heard her say, "but I really thought I had the money. I find, though, that Frank, as usual, has been at my purse—I heard him say something about settling a plumber's bill last night when I was half asleep—and the mean thing has left me only enough for car fare. Too bad! Of course, you know, if I had it"—and so on.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Joke That Failed.

Hoyster had reached home at 2:30 a. m. and found his wife very much awake.

"Now, dear," said the belated man rather thickly, "don't fly up in the air." "And why, pray?" very deliberately inquired the lady, breathing hard. "Because you must infringe the (sic) Wright brothers' patent, my dear," chuckled Hoyster just before she awoke.

PUTNAM AGAINST THE AMENDMENT

By Eleven Votes—L. L. Moody, Independent, Defeats L. C. Stephens for County Commissioner.

The Vote Was Very Light.

Unofficial returns from all the precincts of Putnam county were not in until a late hour on Wednesday night.

These indicate that the Amendment to Article XIX, providing for statewide prohibition, was defeated in this county by a vote of 529 for, to 540 against the Amendment—a majority of 11 against. This is a total of only 1,069 out of a total qualified vote of more than 2,100.

One of the surprises of the election was the defeat of L. C. Stephens, present chairman of the board of county commissioners, by L. L. Moody of Peniel, by a majority of 19 votes. This too is unofficial.

Up to Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock it was generally believed in the city that James M. Chesser, Independent, had defeated W. S. Middleton for the legislature, but the later returns showed gains for Mr. Middleton which soon placed him in the lead and insured his election by over 100 majority.

All the other democratic candidates were elected by large majorities. W. C. Ahlers, county commissioner from the First district, led in the number of votes received throughout the county for commissioner. He defeated Mr. Norton the Independent candidate by a good majority, in that gentleman's own precinct. Mr. Norton received the very light vote throughout the county, even the republicans failing to support him.

In the Sixth ward of Palatka, almost solidly black, a total of 75 votes on the amendment were polled, 73 of these being against the amendment. Had it not been for this ward Palatka would have given a substantial majority for the amendment and it would have carried in the county.

The canvassing board met yesterday afternoon to tabulate the returns and did not finish its work till late, for this reason the News is unable to give the vote by precincts as it had hoped to do. The work of this board may change the figures some, but will probably not effect the result.

LATER—The canvassing board completed the canvass of the county ticket last evening. The official figures on the legislative ticket are: Chesser, 463; McKenzie, 659; Middleton, 594. On the amendment the official vote is as follows: For the amendment 493; against, 521; majority against, 28. Mr. Moody the independent candidate for county commissioner from the Second district has 475, and Mr. Stephens 465. Moody's majority, 10.

The amendment vote in precinct No. 13 (Palatka) was not written in the inspectors returns and therefore was not tabulated. This increased the majority against the amendment from 18 to 28.

Audubon and His Hair.

Audubon, the great naturalist, early in his career wrote his hair very long. He wrote in his diary one day: "I wear my hair as long as usual. I believe it does as much for me as my paintings." However, in 1827 his friends succeeded in persuading him to get his hair cut according to the prevailing fashion. On March 10 of that year he wrote in his diary: "This day my hair sacrificed and the will of God usurped by the wishes of man. As the barber clipped my locks rapidly it reminded me of the horrible times of the French revolution when all the victims murdered by the guillotine. My heart sank low." Further to express his grief, the margin of the page on which this entry was made he painted black about three-quarters of an inch deep all around.

Still Wondering.

The deaf man got out of the tram car on to the other line of rails. "Look out! There's a car coming!" cried the conductor.

"What?" said the deaf man.

"There's a car coming."

"What?"

Just then the car caught and knocked down the deaf man, and as he picked himself up he said:

"I wonder what that foot kept me there talking about!"—London Mail.

Just the Opposite.

An Irishman at a fair got poked in the eye with a stick and took proceed, grins against the offender.

Said the magistrate, "Come, now, you don't really believe he meant to put your eye out?"

"Faith, you're right this time," said Pat, "for I believe he tried to put it farther in."—London Tit-Bits.

The Moral Stimulus of Good Clothes. Men grow in self respect as they wear good clothes. Their clothes earn them the approval of their fellows. In turn they are forced to grow to fill the measure of good opinion, so that, forced forward by the clothes he wears, men attain to their highest capability.—Sartorial Art Journal.

The Exception.

"Doesn't your husband like cats, Mrs. Blinks?"

"No, indeed. He hates all cats except a little kitty they have at his club."—Baltimore American.

A ROOSEVELT WATERLOO.

From New York World.

Theodore Roosevelt and the New Nationalism have gone down to their Waterloo. Mr. Roosevelt will not be the republican candidate for president in 1912.

When the World made Mr. Roosevelt the issue in this campaign he gayly accepted the challenge and spread himself over the political map from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Ocean. He elbowed Mr. Taft and the Republican Administration aside while he conducted a skyrocket campaign for a third term and his own political apotheosis.

Mr. Roosevelt has been speaking for many weeks. Now the people have spoken, and the people have repudiated Rooseveltism.

He is beaten decisively in his own state, where his personally conducted campaign is overwhelmed and the republicans have lost the governorship for the first time in sixteen years.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE THROUGHOUT THE NORTH

Democrats Will Have Working Majority in House of Representatives.

SENATE LOSES MANY REPUBLICAN MEMBERS

New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, and Massachusetts Elect Democratic Governors.

The democratic prediction of a landslide to that party throughout the north have been more than fulfilled. The National House of Representatives is surely democratic by a safe working majority of over 50, and Champ Clark the democratic leader of the outgoing congress has announced his candidacy for speaker to succeed Uncle Joe Cannon. The Senate will have a much reduced republican majority.

"The Big Noise" at Oyster Bay has been silenced. A telegram received at Tammany Hall from Oyster Bay on the night of the election said:

"Roosevelt's own district gives Dix, democratic, 218; Stimson, republican, 158."

NEW YORK.

John A. Dix, a business man, has been elected Governor of New York state by a plurality approximating 75,000. He is the first democrat to be elected governor in 16 years. New York City gave him a plurality of more than 100,000. Thos. F. Conway the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor is running but little behind Dix.

It is probable that the general assembly which will name a successor to Senator Depew will be republican, though at this hour even that is in doubt.

New York state will have 17 Congressmen in the 62d Congress, a gain of five.

Gov. Elect Dix received congratulations at his home in Thomson, N. Y. When commenting on the result, he said:

"I don't like personal attack; I have tried to keep away from it as much as possible during the campaign, but I don't like that aspersion they raise down at Oyster Bay."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The election of Robert P. Bass as governor of New Hampshire is conceded by about 6,000 over Clarence E. Carr the democratic candidate. This is a greatly reduced republican vote.

INDIANA.

In Indiana the Democrats have carried eleven of the thirteen congressional districts, and have elected a democratic legislature which will elect John W. Kern to the United States Senate to succeed Senator Albert J. Beveridge. Later returns seem to indicate the election of twelve democratic congressmen.

CONNECTICUT.

Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, recently retired as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, has been elected governor of Connecticut as a democrat by a majority of approximately 1,500 over Chas. A. Goodwin of Hartford, Conn. It is probable that the republicans have elected the balance of the state ticket. The democrats have one and possibly three congressmen.

OHIO.

Democrats have made great gains in all parts of the state of Ohio and it is said that Gov. Judson Harmon, democrat, has been re-elected by a plurality of more than 75,000. The democrats are also claiming the legislature which will elect a successor to U. S. Senator Charles Dick. At least two additional congressional districts have elected democrats.

Gen. J. Warren Keifer of Springfield, it is thought, has been defeated.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Eugene N. Foss, democrat, has been elected governor of Massachusetts by a plurality of about 33,000. Several additional democratic congressmen have been elected. Foss' plurality in Boston was 27,265.

Gov. Eben S. Draper has conceded the election of Foss and has tendered his congratulations to his democratic successor.

James Alden Thayer, democrat, has defeated Congressman Charles G. Washburn in the Third district.

IN OTHER STATES.

The democrats made large gains in West Virginia.

In Tennessee B. W. Hooper, republican and fusionist, was elected governor by 15,000 majority over Robert W. Taylor. Due to a split in the democratic party. The legislature is democratic in both houses.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin will be re-elected.

Col. Roosevelt, when asked at 9:30 Tuesday night replied, "I have positively NOTHING TO SAY."

A ROOSEVELT WATERLOO.

From New York World.

Theodore Roosevelt and the New Nationalism have gone down to their Waterloo. Mr. Roosevelt will not be the republican candidate for president in 1912.

When the World made Mr. Roosevelt the issue in this campaign he gayly accepted the challenge and spread himself over the political map from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Ocean. He elbowed Mr. Taft and the Republican Administration aside while he conducted a skyrocket campaign for a third term and his own political apotheosis.

Mr. Roosevelt has been speaking for many weeks. Now the people have spoken, and the people have repudiated Rooseveltism.

He is beaten decisively in his own state, where his personally conducted campaign is overwhelmed and the republicans have lost the governorship for the first time in sixteen years.

He is beaten in his own congress district.

He is beaten in his home district in his own town, which was carried by John A. Dix.

He is beaten in Massachusetts, where he viciously assailed Mr. Foss, and the people elected Mr. Foss governor.

He is beaten in Connecticut, where he viciously assailed Judge Baldwin, and the people elected Judge Baldwin governor.

He is beaten in New Jersey, where Woodrow Wilson made an Old Nationalism Democratic campaign against the vagaries of the New Nationalism.

He is beaten in Indiana, where he campaigned for Senator Beveridge on a fake tariff platform of false pretenses.

He is beaten in Iowa, where a republican majority of 74,000 is nearly if not completely wiped out.

And wherever Mr. Roosevelt has been beaten he has been beaten by republican votes.

This is no partisan democratic victory in the ordinary sense of that term. While it is a defeat for the Taft Administration and for the republican party, it is peculiarly a defeat for Theodore Roosevelt and his 1912 ambitions. It was brought about by the help of republicans who were dissatisfied with the record of the Taft Administration and the Aldrich-Cannon revision of the tariff. But it was also brought about by hundreds of thousands of patriotic republicans who still believe in the Constitution of the United States, who still uphold the Supreme Court, and who will tolerate no third-term ambitions in any man, whatever the party name that masks his pretensions.

The World repeats now what it said time and time again during the campaign. Republican victory would have been a Roosevelt victory. Republican defeat is a Roosevelt defeat. When the republican convention in 1912 looks for this mysterious Moses whom Elihu Root has so eloqu
